Dear Han-Kuan Bai,

Based on the MOU between Taipei Medical University and us, we are pleased to inform you that your application for the Fall 2023 internship has been accepted. Your internship will commence on September 25 and conclude on December 21, 2023. The schedule will be daily, unless stated otherwise. Please note that the internship is unpaid, and that transportation and accommodation expenses will be your responsibility.

For the formal completion of your internship, you will be assigned to the corporate project team site as well as other AHMC-affiliated locations. You will not have direct contact with patients but will focus on observation and learning. You will be under the supervision of Suyen Wu, one of our project managers, who will arrange your assignments and provide guidance as necessary.

We are looking forward to meeting with you again and believe you will gain much from this internship. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or need further assistance.

Sincerely,
